Fleet Admiral Ernest J. King
Department of the Navy
Washington, D. C.

Dear Admiral King:

Thank you for your letter of 24 October bringing the case of [] to my attention.

[] is now being considered for a librarian position in our Reference Center. Should she prove suitable for the existing vacancy and be willing to accept the grade level of employment involved, we will accept her application for necessary processing, including the required security check. In such case it normally takes up to 60 days to make final determination as to whether employment can be offered.

You may be assured that we will do our best for her.

Sincerely,

S - Sep 10/31

R. H. HILLENKOTTER
Rear Admiral, USN
